Ohio Charges May Take Proce Over Those of Moline Is Foar of Police.

That William Johnson and Joseph Forrest, alleged members of the rang that held up and robbed the Commercial Savings bank, Fif-eenth avenue, Moline, Aug. 4, will ever appear for trial in Moline is be onlying of Walls bank officials today. They want to ledo raid on Sept. 14 to Moline and they believe them guilty but there is a growing suspicion that the prisoners will be tried on a prior harge in Ohio.

The same group of bandits, it is alleged, staged a bank robbery in Delta, Ohio, on May 20 and since this was the first offense will hold precedent over the Moline crime. The bandits are charged in Moline not only with robbery but with the shooting of Charles Mohler, barber, who narrowly escaped death when struck by a stray shot during the holdup.

Neither the bank officials nor the formation from Toledo, where Johnson and Forrest are under arrest. Chief DeJaeger believes the Toledo police are waiting until the
